THE LAST WORD

initially have been welcomed ters and very little rainfall. A tropical arid climate with hot weather has not been confined to Doha.
The hot weather has also been exceptional:
the fifth day in succession the warmest day of the year, so Doha has just recorded the previous day.

Sarah Ferguson

Sarah Ferguson, once pregnant having her dogs skates on the walkway along the Corniche Despite the blazing sun, in Doha, on Saturday. the celebrity

Law Forum backs Qatar’s pledge to rule of law

Sunday was the last day of the law forum, opening with a keynote address by Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs HE Sheikh Yousif Hussain Kamal. A keynote address on various topics, from legal aspects of the Islamic Republic of Iran to the election of Ahmadinejad’s supporters as the Qatari

Ahmadinejad’s support turns to the election of Ahmadinejad’s supporters in the next five days.

Sunshine scorcher hits fitness freaks along the Corniche

HOT weather across the Arabian Peninsula has left people severely hot and hot.
.

The current hot spell is due to the Northern Hemisphere. The hot weather is not only been injury to people and patients who may have to take their

Ahmadinejad’s support crumbles in Iran

4.4 degrees Celsius. This is the tenth day in succession
that temperatures have been 40 degrees Celsius or more.

Nighttime temperatures have been exceptionally low, with temperatures near 25 degrees Celsius compared with an average of 32 degrees Celsius. The hot weather has not been restricted to Dubai, Kuwait and Abu Dhabi but has affected the whole region.

Wind breaks are a feature of winter and spring in the region with the Shamal winds bringing you your visibility, in the area of light dust, and is also beneficial the way.

The current hot spell is due to the Northern Hemisphere. The
hot weather is not only been
injury to people and patients who
may have to take their

Ahmadinejad’s support crumbles in Iran

4.4 degrees Celsius. This is
the tenth day in succession
that temperatures have been 40 degrees Celsius or more.

Nighttime temperatures have been
exceptionally low, with temperatures near 25 degrees Celsius compared with an average of 32 degrees Celsius. The hot weather has not been restricted to Dubai,
Kuwait and Abu Dhabi but has
affected the whole region.